

Assessment Schedule – 2020English: Analyse specified aspect(s) of studied written text(s), supported by evidence (91098)*Assessment Criteria

Achievement	Achievement with Merit	Achievement with Excellence
Analysing specified aspect(s) of studied written text(s) involves exploring and interpreting how meanings and effects are created in the text(s), discussing specified aspects of the text(s), and providing appropriate evidence from the text(s). The discussion will be clearly communicated in a structured written answer.	Convincingly analysing specified aspect(s) of studied written text(s) involves making reasoned and clear interpretations of specified aspects of the text(s), supported by appropriate evidence from the text(s). The majority of interpretations will be connected to one another.	Perceptively analysing specified aspect(s) of studied written text(s) involves making insightful and / or original interpretations of specified aspects of the text(s), supported by appropriate evidence from the text(s). Insight and / or originality may also be shown by how the interpretations are connected and / or through engagement with the text.

“Specified aspects” of the written texts are selected (as per Explanatory Note 4 of the standard) from:

- purposes and audiences
- ideas (e.g. character, theme, setting)
- language features (e.g. figurative language, syntax, style, symbolism, vocabulary, sound devices)
- structures (e.g. part text, whole text, narrative sequence, beginnings and endings).

At Excellence level, the qualities of “insight” and “originality” should be judged within the context of a candidate working at Level 7 of The New Zealand Curriculum.
