TOTAL

ASSESSOR'S USE ONLY

You are advised to spend one hour writing an essay on your chosen statement in this booklet.

INSTRUCTIONS

Write an essay on at least ONE written text that you have studied, in response to ONE of the statements below.

If you choose to write about more than one text, the texts may be:

- the same type (eg two poems)
- a combination of different types (“intertextual studies” – eg a poem and a short story).

After you have chosen a statement, complete the box at the top of page 4. You may use the space on page 4 to map or plan your ideas.

WRITTEN TEXTS

Discuss the extent to which you agree with your chosen statement. Respond critically to the statement by making a close analysis of the text(s).

STATEMENTS (Choose ONE)

1. The opinions of a writer are made powerful for an audience only when they are presented using a clever or engaging writing style.
2. Deep down, we are more excited by the attributes of the villain than those of the hero.
3. Language must be carefully selected and specifically crafted if it is to affect our emotions.
4. A writer’s task is to make insignificant things significant.
5. Appreciating the setting of a text is the key to unlocking the writer’s purpose.
6. Written texts warn us that the greatest danger is often what people say, not what they do.
7. The brevity of a text enables us to empathise more easily with the experiences of the characters.
8. Literature offers us the opportunity to view protagonists breaking boundaries or taboos.
9. The use of symbolism is the best way to shed light on the darker or deeper messages of a text.
10. Regardless of the genre, the writer’s ‘voice’ will always be unique and distinctive.
