Give the details of the text(s) in the box on page 3.

WRITTEN TEXTS

QUESTIONS (Choose ONE)

- Analyse how the setting required one or more characters to adapt or change.
“Setting” may refer to physical places as well as social and historical contexts.
- Analyse how one or more characters were used as a warning to readers.
- Analyse how ideas were used to sway readers’ emotions.
“Ideas” may refer to character, theme, or setting.
- Analyse how your appreciation of the text was enhanced by the clever use of language features.
- Analyse how structure was important for the development of one or more ideas.
“Structure” may refer to the order, organisation, or conventions of a text, and “ideas” may refer to character, theme, or setting.
- Analyse how conflict led to the climax of the text.
- Analyse how the ideas in the text make it a classic.
“Ideas” may refer to character, theme, or setting, and “classic” means that the text has value and will stand the test of time.
- Analyse how a relationship helped you understand more about other people’s beliefs.
